

Art III

Art III offers four major areas of concentration: landscape, the human figure, still life and abstraction. Each area includes experience with a broad mix of media and focuses upon development of composition, creative and technical skills. Higher-order thinking skills, such as analysis, problem solving and evaluation are emphasized throughout the course.

High School Credits: 1

School Level: High School

Grade: 11, 12

Prerequisites:

Art II

Program: Visual Art