

Honors World History and Geography Part I

This course explores world history from the ancient time period to 1500 A.D. Through a study of world civilizations and their historical development, students gain an understanding of contemporary global issues. Students examine distinguishing characteristics of cultures through literature, art, architecture, music, religion, philosophy and geography. The Honors sections are more reading intensive and require independent thought and sustained effort. This course incorporates strategies and skills to help students prepare for AP World History: Modern and Geography II in 10th grade.

High School Credits: 1

Note:

Entry into this Honors-level course is open to any student willing to complete the required assignments.

School Level: High School

Grade: 9

Program: Social Studies Core Courses