

AP European History

This college-level course is designed to develop greater understanding of the context of modern-day political, diplomatic, social, economic, artistic, intellectual and cultural institutions through the study of European history since 1450 B.C.E. Such understanding is advanced through a combination of selective factual knowledge and appropriate analytical and interpretative skills, focusing on primary and secondary source documents.

High School Credits: 1

Note:

Students who enroll in AP courses must take the end-of-course AP exam. The cost of these exams is paid by ACPS.

School Level: High School

Grade: 11, 12

Program: Social Studies Electives