

Social Skills - Autism

This course is specifically designed to meet the needs of learners identified as moderate to high-functioning autism or Asperger Syndrome to address both organizational and social skill deficits. The course focuses on increasing personal problem-solving and social relatedness skills. Students engage in various activities to increase their understanding and competence in social interactions with peers and authority figures as they approach graduation.

High School Credits: 1

School Level: High School

Grade: 9, 10, 11, 12

Prerequisites:

The student has an Individualized Education Program (IEP).

Program: Academic Support Courses