

Dual Enrollment Survey of World Literature

This is a two-semester dual enrollment course offered through NOVA. Students who successfully complete this course earn six college credits in English Literature. The course introduces students to selected major works that represent the development of world literature from the ancient world to the present. Topics include the recognition of cultural (philosophical, religious, political, etc.) movements that may influence or be influenced by the works studied. This course seeks to increase students' abilities in critical reading and writing. Students need a C or better at the end of the first semester to enroll in the second-semester course.
