

Fashion Marketing I

This is a specialized course for students with a career interest in apparel and accessories marketing and merchandising. Students learn skills unique to employment in the apparel and accessories field in such areas as personal selling, sales promotion, purchasing, physical distribution, market planning and product/service technology.

High School Credits: 1

School Level: High School

Grade: 10, 11, 12

Program: CTE: Marketing