

Latin IA

Students learn basic vocabulary and language structures for understanding life in Ancient Rome. This course stresses communication and culture, making use of a variety of ancillary materials and appropriate technology applications to present the language in an authentic manner. Students attain language proficiency predominantly through the development of reading and writing skills and acquired cultural knowledge.

High School Credits: 0.5

School Level: Middle School

Grade: 6, 7

Length: full year

Program: World Languages